

Darius Rucker, 7 Days

If I could have Monday, I'd be alright
If I could forget you for one Friday night
Wake up on Sunday, you not be my church
Just need one day to handle this hurt
But it's

One drink, one shot, there at the bar
I see two people dancin' out in the dark
It's that 3 in the morning telephone call
That I wanna make, staring at these four walls
Then it's 5 o'clock, gettin' off work all alone
Kick back with a six-pack but your memory ain't gone
I think maybe that I'd be okay
If I wasn't seeing your face
7 days

One Saturday tailgate, one football game
One day in the country, one drive in the rain
Just 24 hours of not feeling blue
But how can I get over you
When it only takes

One drink, one shot, there at the bar
I see two people dancin' out in the dark
It's that 3 in the morning telephone call
That I wanna make, staring at these four walls
Then it's 5 o'clock, gettin' off work all alone
Kick back with a six-pack but your memory ain't gone
I think maybe that I'd be okay
If I wasn't seeing your face
7 days

I've been tryin' to forget you one day at a time
But tryin' can't get you off of my mind
But it's

One drink, one shot, there at the bar
I see two people dancin', dancin' in the dark
It's that 3 in the morning a telephone call
That I wanna make, staring at these four walls
Then it's 5 o'clock, gettin' off work all alone
Kick back with a six-pack but your memory ain't gone
I think maybe that I'd be okay
If I wasn't seeing your face
7 days

Every day, every day, 7 days
Seeing your face
