

Darius, Rushes

Shes got a blind smile and a soft touch
A cute little dimple when she laughs too much
They say you fall hard when you meet her
Such is her allure
Shes got a quick wit and a fast tongue
But she doesnt seem to know that shes the one
They say she cheats charm when she whispers
Shes devilishly pure

Youd see if you knew her
She doesnt know
But its time I told her so

When I see your blushes
From a compliment of mine it touches
Something inside Im getting rushes
The adrenaline rushes
And I'm fascinated
That you really dont know how to take it
When I look at you that way you feel naked
And Im so into you
Im getting rushes

Shes about five nine
Got a sexy stride
With long tanned legs that she shouldnt hide
With a fine air of innocence
Nonchalance in every move
Shes a sweet sensation tease temptation
She looks good enough to eat
Shes a fallen angel with a devilish streak
And so they say
Like with like will finally meet

Youd see if you knew her
She doesnt know
But its time I told her so

When I see your blushes
From a compliment of mine it touches
Something inside Im getting rushes
The adrenaline rushes
And I'm fascinated
That you really dont know how to take it
When I look at you that way you feel naked
And Im so into you
Im getting rushes

When I like it I want more
And I like it and I want more
And I like it and I want more
Never felt it like this before

Its more than adrenaline rushes
Its the touch and the smell of skin rushes
Some call it love at first sight
I call it butterflies

When I see your blushes
From a compliment of mine it touches
Something inside Im getting rushes
The adrenaline rushes
And I'm fascinated
That you really dont know how to take it

When I look at you that way you feel naked
And Im so into you
Im getting rushes
