

Darkest Hour, Sound The Surrender

this moment marks the severing of senses comatose distinctions the gathering of flies on an irrational mind filled with broken conviction i've seen how lies take form in your eyes your suspicious ways followed a hollow gaze you fucking left me to rot but one day you'll see first hand how i've paid for your biggest mistake sound the surrender embraced in vain what will you gain from this what will you lose secrets hidden behind your back your silence it serenades deceit secrets hidden behind your back your forever ideal fantasy sound the surrendered you have gained all you could form this sound the surrender but you've lost the only one
