

Darlene Zschech, Wonderful You

I wake to see the sun rise from her slumber
I hear the birds sing their songs of love
A knowing smile warms my face, I remember
To be thankful, it's a beautiful day
My lost and lonely heart was calling
Out to find the way

Then I found You, wonderful You
Like a dream You came, let me live again
Oh, now there's You, glorious You
I need forever to know Your way

There was a time when peace of mind just eluded me
And the sun was always clouded from my view
But You opened up my heart to see a new day
Now this fire within me needs to praise
I once was lost, but then You found me
I'm in Your arms to stay

How I love You, wonderful You
Like a dream You came, let me live again
Oh, now there's You, beautiful You
I need forever to know Your way

Take my hand
Show me the Word
Change my heart
Oh, let it be true

Take my hand
Show me the Word
Change my heart
Oh, let it be true

My lost and lonely heart was calling
Out to find the way
Oh, I once was lost, and then You found me
I'm in Your arms to stay

Now I've got You, wonderful You
Like a dream You came, let me live again
Oh, now there's You, glorious You
I need forever to know Your way

How I love You, wonderful You
Like a dream You came, let me live again
Oh, I love You, beautiful You
I need forever to know Your way
