

Darren Hayes, Tattooed

Tattooed - Dahmnait Doyle

Am I bound to you?

Will you wither with the rest?

Will you loosen your grip?

As you fade into the sunset?

Will I want to leave you

Shattered on the floor?

Will I do anything to

Have you forever more?

I really miss you

I didn't want to

now it's too late...

chorus:

You're tattooed on my skin

Don't know where you end and I begin

You're tattooed on my soul

Are you the part that makes me whole?

The uncertainty keeps me on my toes

I'm so undone by what I never know

Even you're confusions make sense to me

But I'm afraid that this won't always be....

I really need you

Want to believe

That you need me too...

chorus

I fall hard and I fall fast

know it won't last

I should leave before it's gone

but I'm not that strong...

chorus
