

Darren Hayes, Walk Away

I have been angry for so long now
I let you know
Shoulda walked away when I was young
I let you go
I turned away but maybe I was wrong

I've been polishing blame for so long now
My pride enjoy
A bit tragedy never hurt somehow
This man become a boy
You take the blame but maybe I was wrong

Walk away now and be gone
You don't have to want to go on
I can see its killing you
You don't always have to be so strong for me
Every angel had dirty hands
Even Judas planned to just carry on
Just picking up the pieces
Of what lies behind those sorrowful lies
You can walk away

You have been silent for so long
I let the world now
I turned a bit of my pain into a song
And carried on
You took a bit of my shame but maybe that was wrong

Walk away now and be gone
You don't have to want to go on
Even when they're killing you
You don't always have to be so strong for me
Every angel had dirty hands
Even Judas planned to just carry on
Just picking up the pieces
Of what lies behind those sorrowful lies
You can walk away

Now and be strong
I know you can carry on

Walk away now and be gone
You don't have to want to carry
All the pain inside you
Cause the blood in me is the your blood every time I fall

Walk away now and be gone
Even when its killing you
You don't always have to be so strong for me
Walk away now and be gone
'Cause you know even Judas planned to just carry on
Just picking up the pieces
Of what lies behind those sorrowful lies
You can walk away

Now and be strong
You don't have to carry on

Walk away now and be strong
You don't have to want to go on
Walk away now and be strong
You don't have to want to go on
Walk away
Walk away now

Walk away now
Oh

You don't have to go on
You don't have to be strong
Walk away now
You can walk away