

Darryl Worley, Find Me

Ive looked high and low. Ive searched near and far.
And after all this time, still I dont know where you are.
Ive done all I know to do, so girl, I guess its up to you to

Find me. Baby, Ive been waiting.
Everyday Im praying youll find me, lost in all this lonely.
Longing for you only, baby, please find me.

At least a thousand times Ive seen you in my dreams,
Standing there alone, just barely out of reach.
But in the early morning light I wake up again and cry.

Find me. Baby, Ive been waiting.
Everyday Im praying youll find me, lost in all this lonely.
Longing for you only, baby, please find me.

Find me.

Find me. Baby, Ive been waiting.
Everyday Im praying youll find me, lost in all this lonely.
Longing for you only, baby, please find me.

Find me. Oh, find me.
