

Daryl Hall & John Oates, London Luck & Love

Walking in time to the ringing bell

Waterstained where the raindrops fell

On an island of green in a city sea

And traffic-sound breakers roll in to me

I never thought I'd be up this morning

But London is calling to me

And I never thought that I'd find somebody

Never be caught so easily

London luck, & love

What else could I be dreaming of

The place, the chance, the feeling of

London luck, & love

What else could I be dreaming of

London and love were in your eyes

& luck cause the moment we realized

That mornings are better spent in bed

And some things are better left unsaid

I never felt so close so quickly cause no one gets this close to me

I never thought that I'd find somebody

& never be caught so easily