Daryl Hall & John Oates, You're Much Too Soon

Can't find the reason to stay with you
And by now a reason should appear
Anybody else could understand my fear
That, You're Much Too Soon
Much too much
You're much too much, too soon
You're Much Too Soon
Don't think I'm blown away, by what I am
It's just a job, that keeps me traveling
One thing I've learned is how to take my time
You're Much Too Soon
Much too much
You're much too much, too soon
You're much too much too soon
Don't get heavy babe
You've only known me for a week
Got to keep it steady baby, steady baby
Ooh, got to keep it real
Anything that I could say
Everything that I've been saying
All comes down to that same old thing
That I love you
But, I don't "love" you
I love you
But, I don't "love" you
Let it go, let it go, let it go, now baby
I know, I know you baby
Let it go, let it go, let it go, now baby
I know, I know you baby
Let it go, let it go, let it go, now baby
I know, I know you baby...........
