

Daryl Hall, Power Of Seduction

(Hall, Moreland, Smith)

My friends don't understand it They don't know what you've got to me
My life is too complicated
And I need, sure need some simplicity Ooh the love is ever growing And there has to be a reason why it works for me
You know - baby how to move me
What you give to me is elemental can't you see
That you take the pain from me
Only you know my fantasies
You make me realize Girl you know the way of keeping love alive

It's the power of seduction
It's the only way to keep me
hanging on baby
It's the power of seduction
It's the only hope, so baby do what you want

Just words can't describe it 'Cause there's more to love than what to say Hey lately I've been thinking And that's bad you know I might blow it 'cos of reason Baby you can never do too much Only you, you make the senses all rush
With you - girl I've got to be All because you keep alive the mystery

It's the power of seduction
It's the only way to keep me
hanging on baby
It's the power of seduction
It's the only hope, so baby do
what you want

You made the change in me
Only you know my fantasies
With you I will always be Living with the passion and the mystery
