

Dashboard Confessional, I Have It Back

Sometimes i sit here all bymyself
Wishing i had just a different life
I think back and remember everything
And suddenly i dont feel so insecure

I feel free without these chains
That always seemed to hold me down
I feel open and wild now that
My feet arent touching the ground
I feel everything i missed and now its all back
I've been longing for this .. now i have it all back

All the times we fought we got over it
It seemed to never be enough for you
You just keep asking yourself for more
Well im gonna tell you im done this time

I feel free without these chains
That always seemed to hold me down
I feel open and wild now that
My feet arent touching the ground
I feel everything i missed and now its all back
I've been longing for this .. now i have it all back
