

Dave Dudley, It Won't Hurt As Much Tomorrow

This time I've really thought you this time it's goodbye
By the time you read this I'll be high up in the sky
Oh yes I'm gonna feel you in my arms for quite a while
I thought it over it won't hurt as much tomorrow
Two thousand miles away is much too far
But it's better I'll be gone because I've gone to bar
I knew we wouldn't make it a long long time ago
I know that I'll keep wanting you how much you'd never know
For you it's love be easier but for me I don't want to go
I thought it over it won't hurt as much tomorrow
Oh I thought it over it won't hurt as much tomorrow
