

Dave Dudley, Last Year's Heartaches

I thought I was over losing you even got where I could smile now and then
Everywhere I go I see someone who reminds me of you
Then last year's heartaches come rushing back in
I feel the same old tears in my eyes the same old hurt comes back in style
Then last year's heartaches come rushing back in

My eyes keep playin' tricks
Everywhere I go I see your face in every crowd that I meet
But when I turn around to speak you're never there
Then last year's heartaches come rushing back in
I feel the same old tears in my eyes...
