Dave Dudley, Mad

I got about half high so I spent the whole weekend out I got home Monday morning tore up like a can of Kraut My only suit was layin' on the steps I just picked up and run and I ain't been back there since Well mad yeah she's mad It's back to the doghouse I know from the practise I've had When she's mad I play a dangerous game In the obituary column they've already printed my name

She's five feet three and weights about hundred and eight She's the kind of gal who don't believe in men a makin' mistakes She's sweet and mighty nice But when she's mad she's got a voice that'll cut through ice Well mad ooh she's mad...

She's got eyes like a cat and she watches every move that I make An alarm clock mind that's ringin' every time that I'm late I'm sorry sick and all alone
But I'll have to stick it out cause it just ain't safe to go home
Well mad ooh she's mad...
In the obituary column they've already printed my name
In the obituary column they've already printed my name