

Dave Dudley, Thing Called Love

Six foot six he stood on the ground
He weighed two hundred and thirty five pounds
But I saw that giant of a man brought down to his knees by love
He was the kind of a man that would gamble on luck
Look you in the eye and never back up
But I saw him crying like a little whipped pup because of love
Can see it with your eyes hold it in your hand but like the wind that covers our land
Strong enough to rule the heart of any man this thing called love
It can lift you up it can let you down take your world and turn it all around
Ever since time nothing's ever been found stronger than love

Most men are like me they struggle in doubt
They trouble their minds day in and day out
Too busy with livin' to worry about a word called love
But when I see a mother's tenderness as she holds her young close to her brest
Then I thank God that the world's been blessed with a word called love
Can see it with your eyes...
Ever since time nothing's ever been found stronger than love
