

Dave Hollister, Give Me A Reason

Hmm, Hmm
Trying to get back
To where I used to be, yeah
Knowing who I am
Makes it seem too far out of reach
If I knew what I know now
I'd probably would have left it all alone, oh yeah
So now it seems to me, hmm
I can't find my way back home
Nothing in the world
Could ever give me a reason
And nothing in this world
Could ever tell me why
I wanna know the answers
But they don't come easy, help me, tell me
Where is my heart?
Hmm, what I wanna know is
Is somebody give me
Give me a reason
Oh I need to know
Tell me why
I gotta know
I wanna know the answer
Ooh tell me why
Why am I living trife?
Why I live trife
Thinking about the day
I walked out it was a big mistake, hmm
I never knew the price I'd have to pay, huh
Mama tried to tell me but shit got in the way
Nothing in the world
Could ever give me a reason
And nothing in this world
Could ever tell me why
I wanna know the answers
But they don't come easy, help me yeah, tell me
Where is my heart?
What I wanna know is, hey
Give me a reason
Somebody tell me why
Tell me why
Oh I gotta know, I gotta know, I gotta know the answer
Gotta know the answer
Can you tell me why? Why? Why am I living trife?
Why I'm living trife
Somebody tell me, tell me the reason please
Give me the reason
Please, please somebody ought to know
They gotta know why
Tell me why
Hey, yeah
I wanna know the answer
