

David Ball, Down At The Bottom Of A Broken Heart

I was sittin' on top of the world

Deep in love with a blue eyed girl

(Chorus)

Down at the bottom of a broken heart

You will find her name

Well, I took my love for my Sally Ann

And I burried it deeper than a China man

(Repeat Chorus)

(Instrumental Break)

One day true love is gonna' set me free

But till then I'll be here deep in misery

Yeh, it's cold lonely and dark

Way down at the bottom of a lonely heart
