

David Ball, Trying Not To Love You

(Merle Haggard)

Trying not to love you, falling in every way
With you around I keep losing around day by day
Trying to be fair both to me and to you
Trying not to love you is hard to do

I guess there's no use hiding
What everybody knows
'Cause to other eyes there's no disguise
For the love that shows
If I'm not being clear I'll explain these words to you
Trying not to love you is hard to do

I guess there's no use hiding
What everybody knows
'Cause to other eyes there's no disguise
For the love that shows
If I'm not being clear I'll explain these words to you
Trying not to love you is hard to do
