David Bowie, Survive

Got Oh my, naked eyes I should have kept you I should have tried I should have been a wiser kind of guy I miss you

Give me wings Give me space Give me money for a change of face These noisy rooms and passion pants I loved you

Where's the morning in my life?
Where's the sense in staying right?
Who said time is on my side?
I've got ears and eyes and nothing in my life
But I survive your naked eyes
I'll survive

You alone across the floor You and me and nothing more You're the great mistake I never made I never lied to you, I hated when you lied But I'll survive your naked eyes I'll survive

Beatle boys, all snowy white Razzle dazzle clubs every night Wish I'd sent a Valentine I love you

I'll survive Naked eyes I'll survive I'll survive My naked eyes I'll survive
