

David Charvet, It's Alright

Lost, feelin' blue
Don't let life get you down
Though it's hard, 'cause I've been there too found, finally free
Behind life's door was love
And I realized I held the key
So, it's all in your mind
The troubles you hold in your heart
Are imaginary kinds
Don't let them stand in your way
You'll soon find tomorrow's dreams
Will come true today
It's alright, it's OK
So I want you to listen, girl
When you hear me say
It's alright, it's OK
And there's nothing gonna stop us now
Blue skies are here to stay
Stop, can't you see, oh no
It's your heartache that holds you back
Love yourself, it sets you free
Go, have no fear
Take a chance on your heart
Don't look back, leave the shadows here
So, it's all in your mind
The trginary kinds
Don't let them stand in your way
You'll soon find tomorrow's dreams
Will come true todayouables you hold in your heart
Are ima
It's alright, it's OK
So I want you to listen, girl
When you hear me say
It's alright, it's OK
So there's nothing gonna stop us now
Blue skies are here to stay
Running up high
Running down low
Running out of time
'Cause I don't wanna go away like that, no, no
What you gonna choose
What you gonna proove
What you gonna lose
'Cause I don't wanna live my life like that
It's alright, it's OK
And I want you to listen, girl
When you hear me say
It's alright, it's OK
And there's nothing gonna stop us now
It's alright, it's OK
It's your time, make your way
It's alright, it's OK
And I want you to listen, girl
When you hear me say
It's alright, it's OK
And there's nothing gonna stop us now
It's OK, oh, it's alright
It's OK, it's OK
It's alright, it's OK
'Cause you know that we can't run away
It's alright, it's OK
'Cause you know that we can't run away

Oh, it's alright
