

David Charvet, Take You There

"lyrics her
So he doesnt know your story
Baby i can read your mind
Hear the words you say
I can read the signs
Gonna make myself clear
Let me redefine
If he want you back
Let him wait in line, cause...
[refrain]
Want to touch you there
Where he wont dare
Take you places he wouldnt go
Only i know , only i know where
Want to touch you there
Maybe he wont care
Show you places you never go
Only i know, i can take you there
So tell your little boy stories
Let him play with his mind
I will not hold back
Until he sees youre mine
There s nothing he can teach you
Hes got a lot to learn
Let me light your fire
While hes getting burned
[refrain]
Want to touch you there
Where he wont dare
Take you places he wouldnt go
Only i know , only i know where
Want to touch you there
Maybe he wont care
Show you places you never go
Only i know, i can take you there
Tell you what im gonna do
Tell you what im gonna say
Tell you what im gonna do
Tell you what im gonna make you say
Tell you what im gonna do
Never gonna stop till you scream my name
Ill wanna take you there
Would you dare ?
I want to touch you there
Baby i would show you
Places you never go
I can take you there
[refrain]
Where he wont dare
Only i know , only i know where
Maybe he wont care
Only i know, i can take you there
I...want to touch you there
I...where he wont dare
I...want to take you there
I...can take you there.
