

David Charvet, Take You There

"lyrics her

So he doesnt know your story

Baby i can read your mind

Hear the words you say

I can read the signs

Gonna make myself clear

Let me redefine

If he want you back

Let him wait in line, cause...

[refrain]

Want to touch you there

Where he wont dare

Take you places he wouldnt go

Only i know , only i know where

Want to touch you there

Maybe he wont care

Show you places you never go

Only i know, i can take you there

So tell your little boy stories

Let him play with his mind

I will not hold back

Until he sees youre mine

There s nothing he can teach you

Hes got a lot to learn

Let me light your fire

While hes getting burned

[refrain]

Want to touch you there

Where he wont dare

Take you places he wouldnt go

Only i know , only i know where

Want to touch you there

Maybe he wont care

Show you places you never go

Only i know, i can take you there

Tell you what im gonna do

Tell you what im gonna say

Tell you what im gonna do

Tell you what im gonna make you say

Tell you what im gonna do

Never gonna stop till you scream my name

Ill wanna take you there

Would you dare ?

I want to touch you there

Baby i would show you

Places you never go

I can take you there

[refrain]

Want to touch you there

Where he wont dare

Take you places he wouldnt go

Only i know , only i know where

Want to touch you there

Maybe he wont care

Show you places you never go

Only i know, i can take you there

I...want to touch you there

I...where he wont dare

I...want to take you there

I...can take you there.
