

David Crosby, Melody

(David Crosby and Craig Doerge)

[Intro. (Electric Piano)]

Melody

You are my reason for being
In my life's coldest season I
I keep on seeing you melody

I am such a patchwork of a man
Out here trying to catch
Every whisper that I can
Of you melody mmm ...

Wander you know you wander
Through my life
All the time
Follow you know I'll follow
And when I do
Then my life starts to rhyme

[Instrumental (Synth)]

Sometimes I lose it
I abuse it and I fall
Into the worst damn places of all

Sometimes I even
Start to close my eyes
And then silence
Comes to claim me as its prize

[Instrumental (Electric Piano)]

Suddenly, suddenly nearby
A song rises up to fly
Melody oh, melody
Oh, music, music of my life I love you
I love you, I love you, yes I do
I love you, I love you
I love you, oh

[Ending (Electric Guitar)]
