

David Fly, Tomorrow

1.To many places I have traveled I met people, they don't know what is freedom what is peace
They don't understand
But I want to find my heaven Raise my hand and sing alone walk among empty spaces
I just want to feel free

ref:

For tomorrow without sorrow
I want to fight today

2.Life is hard, I know, for sure it so i tried to find a new place wanted to hide myself on an island where my own paradise is But I found on earth my heaven
When I raise my hand and sing
Walk among empty spaces
I just know I'm free
