

David Fonseca, Open Legs Wide

You're white
Like an angry ghost
But you can't scare me
You fear me the most

And tears like flames
They burn your face
I'll put this fire out
I'll erase this trace

You laugh
Like an evil crow
You wait for the next one
The next in the row

So here I stand
U can trust in me
I'll lie by your side
I'll show you release
I'll open my legs wide
I'll give you some peace

I'll break your fall
I'll light your way
You'll breathe through my lungs
You'll smile through my face
I'll calm your rage
I'll put it in me
I'll open my legs wide
I'll give you some peace
I'll open my legs wide
I'll give you some peace
