

David Gray, Dancing With David

Dancing with David

I am in the enchanted garden with David

He has asked me to dance

His eyes

thoughtful and disarming

i fly to him

like a magnet rushes to its mate his POWER is palpable

i hear the sweet melody

of a time recalled

E U P H O R I A

He whisks me up into his arms

the music floats in the air like bubbles to the sky

He cradles me

swirling, swirling, swirling

to the sound

twirling, twirling, twirling,

to the music

slowly

whirling, whirling, whirling

in the enchanted garden

in and out

of rapturous delight

intoxicating

round and round we go

our hearts ROARing

inside out

circling, circling, circling

outside in

our minds SOARing

side-by-side
exhilarating
front-to-back
electric
back-to-front
profound
swaying, swaying, swaying
to the music
gliding left, gliding right boundaries shattered
joined together
in perfect C L A R I T Y oh, what a brilliant spectacle it is!
leading, following
following, leading
the AWAKENING
suddenly i hear a powerful noise striking my heart and soul a sound I've never heard before but HE wanted me to know swirling, whirling, twirling and as we danced
to the OTHER SIDE
of the garden
i looked UP into the stars
to see David's face GLOWING
with the brightest light I have ever seen
and THEN
he smiled at me

and watched
as my H E A R T and S O U L
burned FREE
lifting me UP to a place
i've never been before
It was on that day
the day that David and I
danced in the
enchanted garden
that is when i first knew that i loved HIM.
I will remember that day
until the world's End
