

David Gray, Sock Monkey Rules!

Sock MONKEY
Rules !

The little fella

first gained popularity

in the

Midwestern region of the U.S.

made from

"Red Heel" socks

It was the sock that America wore to work

compliments of Rockford, Illinois

A symbol of working class families just tryin'

to make a livin'

just tryin' to make ends meet didn't need no shiny doll didn't need Barbie's disco gear

just want to hold my sock monkey just wanted to hold my sock monkey

'til my daddy comes

Daddy wore those red heeled socks every day when he went to work

I'm want to hold my sock monkey

'til Daddy comes through that door

and opens up his arms

to envelope me

sock monkey

can fly !

can slew dragons !

can out shoot'em !

and out dance'em !
sock monkey
makes everything all right sock monkey
takes care of me
ruby red lips
long, black eyelashes
loving smile
true heart
just want to hold my sock monkey
gonna hold my sock monkey
Just a working class girl who can't afford a shiny doll but i'm just as happy holding my sock monkey
'til Daddy comes through that door
'cause he gets me through the night
'cause he makes everything all right
