

David Houston, Back In Baby's Arms

I'm back in baby's arms how I've missed those loving arms
I'm back where I belong back in baby's arms

Don't know why we quarrel we never did before
Since we found out how it hurts I'll bet we never quarrel anymore
I'm back in baby's arms...
I'm back in baby's arms...

Thought I didn't need his love till he took it away
Now I'm back where I belong I'm in my baby's arms and I'm gonna stay
I'm back in baby's arms...
I'm back in baby's arms...
