

David Houston, Losing You Is Something New

I think my heart is takin' it mighty well takin' it mighty well yeah takin' it mighty well
I think my heart is takin' it mighty well
Cause it ain't use to achin' and it ain't use to breakin' and it ain't use to losin'
Yeah breaking it's something new it's true and losing you is something new
I think my eyes are takin' it mighty well mhm takin' it mighty well
Yeah takin' it mighty well
I think my eyes are takin' it mighty well
Cause they used to cryin' they used to spyin'
They used to losing you cause cryin' is something new to my eyes
And losing you is something new
I think my lips are takin' it mighty well mhm takin' it mighty well
Yeah takin' it mighty well
I think my lips are takin' it mighty well
Cause they used to sighin' and they used to lyin'
They used to losing you cause sighing is something new to my lips
Losing you is something new Mhm sighin' is something new to my lips and losing you is something new
