

Dax, God's Eyes

I've never God's eyes
But I seen the devils
He walks with man on Earth
At different levels
He knows the king we serve
So hates and meddles
And prays that we all burn and turn to rebels
He tried to get my soul
But I'll never settle
I'll walk this lonely road
From the Burbs to ghettos
I'll take the gift bestowed
And return a vessel
I am the one they chose
Yeah yeah yeah

Rebellious in our ways
been sinners since birth
He knew that it would happen
when he put us on this earth
We've demonized religion brought corruption to the church
We know price everything but we don't know the worth
We spend all of our time idolizing false prophets
Comparisons the enemy stop watching others pockets
The social systems broken
We divide on every topic
They fabricate the truth
Then we all monetize the gossip
We know the problems and we see them, but don't wanna change we're desensitized to every issue

I've never God's eyes
But I seen the devils
He walks with man on Earth
At different levels
He knows the king we serve
So hates and meddles
And prays that we all burn and turn to rebels
He tried to get my soul
But I'll never settle
I'll walk this lonely road
From the Burbs to ghettos
I'll take the gift bestowed
And return a vessel
I am the one they chose

Our God is an awesome artist in perilous times we seek his grace as the world and times we face t
In the midst of the pain distain and the medias push of all this garbage I pray that you keep your faith
It's bout time that we take it back
The Weights to great for the Camels back
Strong men made life an easy task and now the weak men feminize every act
In the church and the workplace every class
On the television screen and the state of rap
All virtues gone and has to fade black we're in hell on earth and it gon collapse integrities lost hedonism we incentive Gods on the way the revolution will be televised
Gone to far don't know if we can rectify
At those gates we will testify
So I'm saying it now before they counter it clockwise we are living in times where the wickedest all

I've never God's eyes
He walks with man on Earth

He knows the king we serve
So hates and meddles
And prays that we all burn and turn to rebels
He tried to get my soul
But I'll never settle
And return a vessel
