

Day Of Fire, Jacob's Dream

-Chorus-

Well it's time to head out
Gotta find another place to rest
Before the sun goes down
In the darkness of the west

If I rest my head,
Would I have to lay upon the stone
If I rest my head
Would I lay to rest alone

-Chorus-

If I climb those stairs
Would I find my way back to home

If I climb those stairs
Would I find my way alone

I'm searching, searching
There must be something real
Searching, searching

If I rest my head,
Would I have to lay upon the stone
If I rest my head,
Would I lay to rest alone
If I climb those stairs,
Would I find my way back to home
If I climb those stairs,
Would I find my way alone
