

Days Away, Bebop And Rocksteady

I wonder if I can make it home tonight
Standing when everything I have
Tears me up and breaks me down,
But you're still shining.

Of course I want to rock n roll,
And still know that it's just
You and me together in this world.

I can't believe my eyes,
Your face leaves a space in my heart.
You are an angel in disguise
And I can't believe your eyes.

I wonder if you should be alone tonight,
Waiting for someone who knows everything about you
When I am screaming always and forever.
And you're unbelievable,
You're so unbelievable,
I know this because

I can't believe my eyes.
Your face leaves a space in my heart.
You're an angel in disguise.
I can't believe your eyes

I can't believe my eyes.
Your face leaves a space in my heart.
You're an angel in disguise.
And I can't believe your eyes
