

Days Away, That's What She Tells Me

wer're gonna start this right
its gonna end tonight,
im gonna make sure everything, everything will end up white so i'll tell you i love her, and thats what i tell myself theres something im hiding cause im afraid of what she might find out

wer're gonna start this right
its gonna end tonight,
im gonna make sure everything, everything will end up white (x2)

cause this is where you wanted to be.
I bet that now, if I said anything, you wouldn't believe me.
like when I say it is what it is meant to be.
