

Days Of The New, Cling

It seems so slow to me
Watching them drop like fleas
Got to run
Got to get over this
I've faced my death
I've drowned in piss

Is it okay if I invade you?
Place myself before you
Even though you think
You're so much better than me

I'll break this
I'll take this
If you
I'll ache this Fall through
I'll break this

There is no peace to bring
Pain is the only thing
That's holding on
And won't let go
And can take over you
And won't let you know

Is it okay if I rape you?
Make something else
Something out of you
Even though you think
I might just set you free

I feel you
I see you
I know you
I watch you everyday

I crave you
I've done you
I've thrown you away
Alone too much to hide
