

Days Of The New, Fighting W/Clay

I've kept my difference
I look at you another way
Nobody knows you
Nobody even knows your name

But you keep on fighting
Fighting with my clay
I've kept my difference

I look at you another way

You're receiving up your ass
Everything is wrong again
No sense to me, destruction's found its way in
Fighting with my clay
