

Days Of The New, Last One

Alone with pain

I thought i'd made a friend
Why do you leave now
Is this what you've planned
Wait your turn
It's a long time
Before you'll breathe

Stay underwater and tell me are you free

I cannot complain
The pain will stay here for today
It seems to stay
I cannot complain
The pain will stay

I want to be there for you
You can't seem to take this ride
I want to be there for you now

You're not a shoulder
If i'm the one to lean
I see your red side when you always bleed
The world is a pea
No it don't revolve around me
If anything i revolve around the world (much bigger)
