Dc Cooper, Over The Fire (Pink Cream 69)

When you hear the voice inside you Does it tell you what to do? Do you take the time to listen? Do the things he asked of you

Break out of the chains that bind you down Out of the chains that hold your sound Satisfy your soul Go the only way

Out of the darkness of mind Don't be afraid of your find

So just...

Hold your hand over the fire Hold your hand over the fire

Now you found a good solution Now it's time to get it right Got no time for your excuses There will be no alibi

Wait, but there's no time to hesitate There is no time to sit and wait Got to take a chance Head the words I say

Out of the darkness of mind Don't be afraid of your find

Hold your hand over the fire Hold your hand over the fire Hold your hand over the fire Hold your hand over the fire

Out of the dark Into the light it will shine

You were a clown
Wearing a frown
Life was a circus
That just came to town
But it's all just a lie
And you know why it's a lie

Hold your hand over the fire Hold your hand over the fire Hold (hold) your (your) hand (hand) over the fire Hold (hold) your (your) hand (hand) over the fire
