

DC Talk, He Knows My Name

I have a maker
He formed my heart
Before even time began
My life was in his hands

He knows my name
He knows my every thought
He sees each tear that falls and He hears me when I call

I have a father
He calls me his own
He never leaves me
No matter where I go

He knows my name
He knows my every thought
He sees each tear the falls
and He hears me when I call
