

De/Vision, Desertland

They fall down to pray again
They don't want to stay in the land
Enough time is passed in minds

Take them home again
Back to mothers' fears (?fist)

They have to go
To a strange land
Where they die

The children not at home
The mothers cry for their sons

They have to go
To a strange land
Where they die?
