

De/Vision, See What I See

All people are born alike
Most people get terrified when it comes to sacrifice
Blind on the mind's eye
All people are born alike
Some people may decide not to be on your side
Blind on the mind's eye

I'm in control
I need no-one
Not to tell me how I feel
How does it feel now?

I've never been good company
My hallucinations comfort me
If only you
If you could see what I see
There ain't no doubt
It's plain to see
I'm bound by your biology
If only you
If you could see what I see
