

De Vision, Still Unknown

I never move in time
One by one my senses learn to fly
Wave good bye
I'm always on the move
I'm at one with the world
I'm at one with everyone
Everything except myself

Call me names I don't mind
I shall pay you back in kind
My love for you is still unknown
Bould it up
Tear it down
Don't be afraid to break new ground
My love for you is still unknown

My time is almost up
No amount of paint can hide the rust
There's a time and place for everything
