

De/Vision, Take Me To Heaven

18 a.m. I'm cruising through the dark
Stained and on the road for far too long
I'm going down the only road
I've ever known
And for the first time
I'm afraid to go alone

I love you that's for sure
To love you is the hardest thing of all
I love you that's for sure
To hold you is impossible to do

Take me to heaven
Take me to heaven, all the way
Take me to heaven
Take me to heaven and back again

Five to twelve
I'm rising to the stars
That's the only place where I belong
I'm feeling pain and pleasure
I have never known
I'm coming up I'm coming down
I'm coming home
