

Dead Flowers, Ain't It The Truth

If you're feeling lazy have another sunday if you could have a good slacking around for me to please you the job can wait til tuesday maybe even thursday let it go mystical even this dump seems cool with you baby Our love could not be better we'll always be together What cha got not a lot not a lot of nothing always with you baby Ain't it the truth baby we're the happiest fools baby without a clue baby
and no particular use trying to be satirical on any given lyrical if we can maybe yeah sleep through the rest of the day with you baby So if you're feeling lazy come on won't you baby here we go just for show just for the fun of being dumb like you baby Ain't it the truth baby
we're the happiest fools baby
without a clue baby
and no particular use
and if the man comes to take us both away I could do you yeah you could do Saturdays we'll steal another room another hideaway laughing at all the people saying, "what do you do?"
Ain't it the truth baby
We're the happiest fools baby
without a clue baby
and no particular use
