

Dead Flowers, You Drink The Water I'll Drink The

It all started around $12.99
My taste grew cheaper down to $6.95
That doesn't mean that you can preach me your lines
You drink the water I'll drink the wine
You disappoint me with your grating designs
You started saying I was wasting your time
Girl if you don't need it that's fancy that's fine
You drink the water I'll drink the wine
It's getting harder just to keep it inside
It ain't something you can reason behind
Well I'm alright man at least it's my state of mind
You drink the water I'll drink the wine
Well I guess it's expected that you changed and moved on
And it's hard to ignore that I'm all alone
Maybe someday you'll find me deely in a bind but then again
You drink the water I'll drink the wine
