

Dead Milkmen, Death's Alright With Me

Death's alright with me
How funny it can be hahaha
Death's alright with me
It's a chance to grow
Death's alright with me
Put me on deathrow
My gun is on the shelf
I guess I'll shoot myself
Death's alright with me
When it's on TV
Death's alright with me
How funny it can be hahaha
Death's alright with me
It's a chance to grow
Death's alright with me
Put me on deathrow
My baby said goodbye
My baby made me cry

Then Rod and Joe just go "Whoa whoa whoa" as in some doo wop voice or something

Death's alright with me
When it's on TV
Death's alright with me
How funny it can be hahaha
Death's alright to me
Put me on deathrow
My gun is on the shelf
I guess I'll go and shoot myself
