Dead Moon, Can't Help Falling In Love

Wise men say only fools rush in But I can't help falling in love with you Shall I say would it be a sin If I can't help falling in love with you Like a river flows surely to the sea Darling so it goes some things are meant to be Take my hand, take my whole life, too

For I can't falling in love with you Like a river flows surely to the sea Darling so it goes some things are meant to be Take my hand, take my whole life, too For I can't falling in love with you For I can't falling in love with you
