Dead Moon, You Must Be A Witch

Why do you try to look into me Why do you always look and never see Always look and never see

You're painting me green You're talking obscene You're wearing your colors to be like the others An easy life in heaven with a thousand other guys Wou must be a witch I don't need your love now

The place, the time Don't seem to matter much 'Cause class to you Is pushing people with your touch

You're eyes can't see There's something wrong with you It's sad to say I nevver wanna be like you Never wanna be like you
