

Dead Or Alive, In Too Deep

I could offer to you a thousand things

But with a lot of them you wouldn't bother.
I could buy you ten real diamond rings

But I'm sure that you would want another.

I could take a plane and I could fly away

I could steal a car and I could drive away.

You have brought me a lot of things

But the main one that you've brought was trouble.
You put your finger to the trigger and you shot my heart.

Well

now I'm really gonna burst your bubble.
I could take a plane and I could fly away

But I'm in too deep
there's no getting out of it

In too deep - no doubt about it.
In too deep
there's no getting out of it

In too deep - no doubt about it.

Too deep - too deep
I could call you a lot of things

I could say there'll never be another.
Ev'ry time the situation feels like it is close

I've got to turn around and say: don't bother.
I could take a plane and I could fly away

But I'm in too deep
there's no getting out of it

In too deep
there's no getting out of it

Too deep - too deep -
I could take a plane and I could fly away

I could offer to you a thousand things

I could take a plane and I could fly away

But I'm in too deep
there's no getting out of it

In too deep
there's no getting out of it
