

Deadboy & The Elephantmen, Like The Dead Wo

we laugh like the dead would laugh we laugh like the dead would laugh tonight laughing like red death unmasked at midnight
we laugh like the dead would laugh though your soul has gone so far away from mine your mouth opens slowly blowing smoke like time laughing like the dead would laugh tonight laughing like red death blood splashed by starlight look up there's a monster in the moon tonight you were born into a movie without sound but its alright
we laugh like the dead would laugh
we laugh like the dead would laugh tonight
laughing like red death unmasked at midnight
tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
we laugh like the dead would laugh
we laugh like the dead would laugh
like the dead would laugh
