

Deadlights, Foolish Pride

Never see your face again
When it's oh so sad
Because you were my friend
Well it makes no sense to me
How you could give up more than everything
Just to set your spirit free

Give Up Your foolish pride
Or one day you might find
These silly dreams are all you live for
And in your twisted mind
You may think that you can hide
But that can never be

Well it too you so long
For you to see yourself, and see where you went wrong
And it'll be so hard
For you to hear yourself and try to carry on

Give Up Your foolish pride
Or one day you might find
These silly dreams are all you live for
The Love you left behind
Won't come back to you this time
But you could never see...

Give up your foolish Pride...

Give up your foolish pride
Or one day you might find
These silly dreams are all you live for
